Poydras Gaming Finance Corp. Announces Change to the Board of Directors

Retains TMX Equicom for Investor Relations Services

Vancouver, BC, March 17, 2015 – POYDRAS GAMING FINANCE CORP. (TSX-V: PYD) (“Poydras” or the “Company”) today announced that effective immediately, Michael Rumbolz, has resigned as a director of the Company to pursue other business opportunities.

“I have greatly enjoyed my time on the Board of Poydras and would like to express my utmost confidence in its business and management team going forward,” said Rumbolz.

Peter Macy, CEO of Poydras commented, “We would like to thank Michael for his support and invaluable contributions, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors.”

The Company has initiated a search for a new independent board member to replace Mr. Rumbolz, and the Board size will drop to four until the recruitment of the new independent director.

Poydras Gaming also announced that it has retained TMX Equicom to provide strategic investor relations and communications services. Under the terms of the agreement, Poydras will pay TMX Equicom a monthly retainer fee of $8,000 for select investor relations and strategic communications services. The contract term is for 12 months and commences immediately. Neither TMX Equicom nor any of its principals have an ownership interest, directly or indirectly, in Poydras or its securities, and Poydras has not granted TMX Equicom or its principals any right to acquire any such interests.

TMX Equicom is a wholly-owned subsidiary of TMX Group Inc, and provides strategic investor relations and communications services to approximately 100 public companies across a diverse range of industries from its offices in Toronto, Calgary and San Diego.
